

Popular Military Support Organization, eMail Our Military, Visits Washington

WASHINGTON: (May 23, 2002) – Ms. Melguizo, Public Affairs Director for eMail Our Military is in Washington, D.C. this week as part of a special "Veteran Appreciation" Campaign.

On Friday the 24th, Melguizo will be attending the Evening Parade at Marine Barracks "8th and I" the oldest post of the Marine Corps established in 1801 with Gunnery Sergeant Stephen O'Hara and Corporal Michael Pushkal. Also on her list of scheduled events are visits to the Vietnam, Korean and Iwo Jima Memorials on Memorial Day.

eMail Our Military has printed "Thank You" notes that Melguizo will be handing out to veterans at the memorials this weekend as a way of showing gratitude. Melguizo stated "We just want to make sure that our veterans know we appreciate all they have done and continue to do for our country. We realize they just don't hear thank you quite as often as they should."

eMail Our Military (eMOM) was created as a response to the DoD's cancellation of the "Any Service Member" and "Operation Dear Abby" mail programs in 2001, with the mission to provide encouragement, motivation and morale support to the men and women serving in our military by sending eMail, correspondence and care packages. Website visitors can join, participation is free, and take part in a number of support projects ranging from sending eMail on a one-on-one basis with a service member to year round support projects.
