

eMail Our Military Moves it Home Base to Newport News, VA To Be Closer to Our Troops

NEWPORT NEWS: (February 1, 2003) - Hoping to be of better service to those serving our country, eMail Our Military moved it's home base from Miami, Florida to Newport News, Virginia in February of 2003. The newest location is conveniently located just hours from Washington, D.C., Marine Corps base Quantico, and 8th and I the oldest Marine Corps base (Home to the Silent Drill Team and the President's Own).

eMail Our Military's Public Affairs Officer said "Last Memorial Day we traveled quite a distance for our Veteran Appreciation Campaign in DC. We loved doing it and we are thrilled over the opportunities that come along with being so close to our Nation's Capitol".

This new location is minutes away from Ft. Eustis, Ft. Monroe, Ft. Story, Langley AFB, NAB Little Creek, NAS Oceana, NAS Oceana Dam Neck Annex, NS Norfolk, NSGA Northwest, NWS Yorktown, Expeditionary Warfare Training Groups Atlantic Fleet, Navy and Marine Corps Intelligence Training Center Dam Neck, NMCRC Norfolk, Marine Corps Forces Atlantic in Norfolk (MARFORLANT), USCG Hampton Roads and USCG TC Yorktown.

It also gives the eMail Our Military organization access locally to a wider group of military bases like Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune in North Carolina, MCRD Parris Island in South Carolina and Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland that are now just a few hours away.

"We felt this was one of the best locations for our support organization and campaign with the surrounding military installations. It's a wonderful opportunity for us to really get out there and not only support our service members but provide a local presence as well" stated eMail Our Military's Public Affairs Officer.

eMail Our Military would love to hear from locals in the area. For more information on eMail Our Military, visit their website at www.eMailOurMilitary.com eMail Our Military (eMOM) was created as a response to the DoD's cancellation of the "Any Service Member" and "Operation Dear Abby" mail programs in 2001, with the mission to provide encouragement, motivation and morale support to the men and women serving in our military by sending eMail, correspondence and care packages. Website visitors can join, participation is free, and take part in a number of support projects ranging from sending eMail on a one-on-one basis with a service member to year round support projects.
