

eMail Our Military Teams Up with Comedian, Dan Smith, to Boost Troops Morale

MIAMI: (August 16, 2006) - Teaming Up with Comedian Dan Smith once again eMail Our Military is including his very first DVD in care packages to service members abroad.

Last May, Dan Smith and eMail Our Military collaborated to include his comedy CD "Speak When Spoken To" in their regular care package mailings to the troops. This time around they'll be working together to get Dan's brand new DVD "Manjob" to our heroes. "Manjob" includes over an hour of footage from Dan's tours in Iraq and Afghanistan.

"Dan gave us a call about this project and made us an offer we couldn't refuse. When we purchase one DVD he'll donate 10 for our care packages. We appreciate Dan's comedy and the fact that he's helping boost the morale of our service members so teaming up with him once again seemed only natural," said eMOM's Public Affairs Officer.

Not only is Dan hilariously funny he's passionate about showing his support. He's already performed in 13 tours supporting the troops and this September & October he'll be going overseas again to perform for our troops in Afghanistan, Germany and Saudi Arabia and he offers free shipping to any FPO or APO address for our friends in the military.

eMail Our Military (eMOM) was created as a response to the DoD's cancellation of the "Any Service Member" and "Operation Dear Abby" mail programs in 2001, with the mission to provide encouragement, motivation and morale support to the men and women serving in our military by sending eMail, correspondence and care packages. Website visitors can join, participation is free, and take part in a number of support projects ranging from sending eMail on a one-on-one basis with a service member to year round support projects.
